

From the Editor-in-Chief

It is a great honor for us to inform our readers, subscribers, friends, and colleagues that the International Journal of Medicinal Mushrooms has been selected for coverage in Thomson Scientific (USA) Products and Solutions. Information on the contents of the International Journal of Medicinal Mushrooms publications will be indexed, beginning with Volume 9 (1) 2007, in

- Science Citation Index Expanded (also known as SciSearch®)
- Current Contents®/Agriculture, Biology, and Environmental Sciences
- Journal Citation Reports/Science Edition

This coverage is in addition to existing inclusion in

- International Pharmaceutical Abstracts
- Biological Abstracts
- BIOSIS Previews
- Elsevier's Bibliographic Databases

I would like to congratulate our publisher, Begell House, Inc. (USA)—especially the President, Dr. William Begell—and all contributors, authors, reviewers, editors, production managers, and distributors for their dedication and devotion to this success.
